Postal Stamp Initiative

The Oregon Council of Hostelling International invites you to a cultural learning event series!

Dear Lee Ann,

As members of an organization that appreciates and respects world cultures, we think you will be interested in this series of events in honor of Native American heritages, sponsored by the City of Portland. Please note that we are looking for volunteers to help with this and other events. Hope to see you there!

... Join us in November for:

Native American Heritage Month

Wednesday, November 7 Noon-1pm

Introduction to the Prehistory and Archeology of the Portland Area David V. Ellis has been an archaeologist specializing in the cultural history of the Northwest for 30 years. He is well known for his work in interpreting Portland area artifacts and local geological/archaeological sites. This fascinating presentation and discussion will provide you with ideas about this area's population and lifestyle before white settlement and records.

Thursday, November 8 Noon - 1pm

Jaime Pinkham - A Nez Perce Perspective
Sacred River: An Individual's Search for the Truth.

Our Mission

To help all, especially the young, gain a greater understanding of the world and its people through hostelling

Our Vision

For hostellers to become caring world citizens who are catalysts for intercultural exchange and understanding, and who are stewards of the earth

Jaime will share his perspective about the natural world and some truths that he has uncovered in his travels.

Wednesday, November 14 11:30am-1pm

Native American Potluck

Bring your appetite and a favorite Native American dish! If you need a new recipe, visit the website to get fresh traditional recipes. Please be sustainable and bring your own plate and utensils if possible.

Wednesday, November 21 Noon-1pm

Lore of the Land - Lynn Vanderkamp and Will Hornyak

Will Hornyak is well known for his mesmerizing storytelling. Join Will as he tells "The Story of River", an original story about the history of river in the Native American format and he will be telling "Swallowing Monster", a traditional story. Lynn, a BES environmental educator, will be telling "Jumping Mouse" and "Dash Kayah, the Cannibal Woman" which are traditional Native American stories.

Wednesday, November 28 Noon-1pm

Artist Talk by Lillian Pitt

Lillian Pitt is well known for her artwork in various mediums. She creates paintings, masks, sculptures and jewelry. Ms. Pitt will show slides of her work while she talks about her choice of materials and her art process. Her artwork can be viewed at various galleries and public spaces such as the Max Line along N. Interstate Avenue at the N. Portland Blvd. station, the Oregon Convention Center, and the Native American Student Center at Portland State University.

Thursday, November 29 10am-4pm

Marketplace - Native American Artisans

Native American art, beading and jewelry, organic skin care and specialty gifts, leather crafts, woven baskets, dolls and other items will be for sale. Among the tribes represented are Chickasaw, Grande Ronde, Siletz and Tlingit/Haida, Paiute and Cherokee. we need volunteers for this event!
